13 ORDER GRANTING PLAINTIFF
14 EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE
15 SECOND AMENDED COMPLAINT
16

17 Re: Dkt. Nos. 38, 39
18

19 On February 9, 2024, the Court dismissed plaintiff's First Amended Complaint and 20 granted him leave to file a Second Amended Complaint by March 8, 2024. ECF 35. On March 1,
21 plaintiff filed a "Motion for Permissive Joinder" describing retaliation that he has experienced 22 since filing his lawsuit. ECF 38. On March 6, plaintiff filed a "Motion for Leave to File an 23 Amended Complaint." ECF 39. The Court construes plaintiff's March 6 motion as a request for 24 an extension of time to file his Second Amended Complaint and grants the motion.

26 Plaintiff's Second Amended Complaint is due by April 15, 2024, and must include the 27 caption and civil case number used in this order, 23-cv-03813-LJC, and the words "SECOND AMENDED COMPLAINT" on the first page. Because an amended complaint completely replaces the original complaint, plaintiff must include in it all the claims he wishes to present.
28 See Ferdik v. Bonzelet, 963 F.2d 1258, 1262 (9th Cir. 1992). Plaintiff may not incorporate material from the original Complaint by reference. He should explain the facts to the Court as though it is his first time doing so. Failure to amend by April 15, 2024 will result in dismissal of this case.

29 As for plaintiff's request for joinder, he may include in his Second Amended Complaint
30 "as many claims as [he] has" against a single defendant. Fed. R. Civ. P. 18(a). But he can only
31

1 join other defendants “if any right to relief is asserted against them jointly, severally, or in the 2 alternative with respect to or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of 3 transactions or occurrences; and any question of law or fact common to all defendants will arise in 4 the action.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 20(a)(2). Plaintiff should not join unrelated claims against different
5 defendants. Plaintiff’s claims of retaliation for filing this lawsuit are sufficiently related to the 6 underlying claims in this lawsuit that he may include them.

7 This Order terminates ECF 38 and 39.

8 IT IS SO ORDERED.
